We published several papers on how to reduce risk of AI using data mining techniques. In particular, we are continuing our research on how to reduce the risk of automated machine learning on the basis of empirical studies. We are also doing some additional research on AI-enabled social networks and what can we do about that risk: we'll be doing a bunch of other things in the future.. Ms Yui was kidnapped, tortured and dumped in a river on 25 January. At least 25 people have been murdered and missing.
